This famous International Contemporary Dance company performs SAD CASE a piece for 5 dancers one day prior to opening at the JOYCE THEATER in New York City.

This special performance includes Casia Vengoechea a native Staten Islander who started dancing at I.S.61 before attending La Guardia, Julliard. and now NDT2. She is the proud recipient of the 2011 Princess Grace Award, National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts Award and many others.

After the performance, Casia Vengoechea will conduct an interactive TALK with her fellow dancers and the Artistic Directors, Paul Lightfoot and Sol Leon. They will discuss and demonstrate the making of choreography and dance to the attendees.

YOUTH MATTERS

YOUTH MATTERS A series of performances for the young and the young at heart, during school hours or in weekends for different age groups, including special teen and tween performances
